CHIEF ENGINEER KOBAYAKAWA

Knowledgeable about the Unebi's engine. Very muscular, she takes pride in her imposing physique. Maybe because of her influence, the engineering crew is the most passionate group on the Unebi. She forbids non-engineers from entering the engine room, her reason being that letting anyone get hurt would disappoint the Captain. She has known Kuki for a long time end they're evenly matched in Judo. She makes uniforms and swimsuits out of fabric obtained as spoils of war, so she has e skillful side.
